The Hanalei Moon Beach cottage was a delightful place to recover after our 4 days on the Kalalau trail, although there are far fewer naked beach hippies in Hanalei.

We hope to have many returns to this blissful bay with its fun surfing, dolphin watching, maitais and Kava Pie ice cream. We spent many hours on the lanai and on the couch, ~~mesmerized~~ mesmerized by the crashing waves and amazing views.

This house has an ideal location and comfortable, welcoming vibe. We will quickly recommend this place to our friends & family.

Hope to come back soon, Thanks again!
